BC Scenario

Luis and Lee really love being together, and feel very close to one another. They have decided that they should talk about birth control before they decide to have sex. They have come to you for advice.

1. What will you ask them about their relationship?

2. What should they think about if they are choosing a birth control method? (give at least 3 points)

3. Where can you send them to get birth control counselling and methods?
