

What are you going to say?

What's that? "A condom, honey."

What for? "To use when we make love."

I don't like them. "Why not?"

It doesn't feel as good. "...

But we've never used a condom before.

Condoms suck.

I'll pull out in time.

Condoms aren't romantic.

It interrupts everything.

I love you...

Don't worry, baby...

Don't you trust me?

Nothing bad is going to happen...

Are you having sex with someone else?

I promise we'll use something next time...

If you get pregnant, I'll marry you...

I just don't want anything between us...
