

SERC needs your help in recruiting youth for the Our Families Can Talk About Anything MULTICULTURAL YOUTH GROUP

Sexuality Education Resource Centre's Our Families Can Talk About Anything Project will be holding a group for immigrant/refugee youth focusing on issues such as:

- culture
- adaptation
- intergenerational communication
- violence/gang prevention, conflict mediation
- sexuality-related issues (e.g. dating, peer pressure, emotional and physical changes of puberty)

All health information will follow the school curriculum.

- ▶ Have English Bench Mark 5
- ▶ Be willing to commit to attend all 10 sessions
- ▶ Be of any gender
- ▶ Express an interest in attending the group and have a strong interest in the issues being discussed

SERC facilitators are asking for your referrals, but we will make the final selection, to ensure that we have a good mix of cultures, gender and ages.

If you know youth who fit the above criteria, please refer them to:

*Carola at 982-7815
or carolav@serc.mb.ca*

Thank you for your support and assistance.

To ensure the best possible experience for the youth, we ask that the following criteria be followed.

Youth will:

- ▶ Have registered place of birth outside Canada, with up to 5 years of living in Canada
- ▶ Be 14 – 21 years old (applicants under 18 years must complete a parental consent form)

Date of Sessions:
*Friday evenings
starting January 13
to March 16, 2012*

Time: 5:00—8:00 p.m.

Place: SERC Board Room,
200–226 Osborne St. N.
(at York Avenue)

Project funding provided by Manitoba Immigrant Integration Program, Manitoba Labour & Immigration
