Adolescent Parents Day

TUES, OCT. 16th

Marlborough Hotel
(331 Smith Street)
10 a.m. - 2:30 p.m.

The 3rd annual APIN Adolescent Parents Day will combine physical activity, music and learning. Along with an active Kids in motion session, the day will include an engaging presentation on attachment and raising emotionally healthy children by Csilla Przibislawsky, a therapist at Aulneau Renewal Centre. She will help teen parents understand how to let their baby and child know that they truly care about his or her feelings and needs. Knowing someone cares and will be there for us is something we all need, even as adults. (For information on how to register, please see page 2.)

Robert Wilson and Don Robinson will discuss the process once a referral has been received by ANCR along with information on the programs operating out of the All Nations Coordinated Response Network.

As reported in the Winnipeg Free Press (September 21, 2007), ANCR recently opened a new family resource centre in St. Boniface. A second centre will be located in the West End. Quoting Executive Director Sonia Prevost-Derbecker, the article notes that the new resource centre will help families who, with a bit of help, can get back on track.
